Transport

In USSR people used to use trams, buses and trolleybuses, like now. Difference is maybe water taxi, which appeared recently.

Food and drink

People used to go to canteens and restaurants in USSR.

People didn't use to eat blue cheese.

Now the situation is, that number of restaurants is bigger than number of canteens.

Entertainment

People used to use cinemas, theatres, game machines etc. to have fun.
Now there is a very little number of game machines.

Work

People used to work in factories.

But now there are a lot of different professions like: programmers in modern meaning, selling- and other managers, designers, sitemakers, webdesigners

Health

Just like now there People used to go to hospitals and polyclinics to be healthy.

Education

People used to go to very good schools.
